

Abstract

Verlina

The differences of interpersonal competence male and female late adolescence. (Zamralita, MM.,Psi. dan Mardiana, Psi.); Under Graduated Program of Psychology, Tarumanagara University. (61 pages, P1-P4)

The aim of this research is to see differences of interpersonal competence between male and female late adolescence. The subjects of this research is late adolescence, aged between 18-21. The total subjects of this research are 361 respondents, divided by 180 male and 181 female. Researcher used questionnaire which is based on Likert scale to collect the data of this research. The data was analyzed by Independent Samples Test with SPSS program 13th version,  $t = -1,039$  and  $p = 0,299 > 0,05$  which means there is no significant differences of interpersonal competence between male and female late adolescence.