

ABSTRACT

The Description of Attitude Toward Bullying Behavior (Study at Teenager Student at 8 Junior High School in West Jakarta). (P. Tommy Yudha S. Suyasa, M.Si, Psi); Psychology Study Program, S1 Under graduate Program, University of Tarumanagara.

This study is a kind of descriptive research that purpose is to find the description of attitude toward bullying behavior that happer in the students of Junior High School 2nd Grade. Attitude is an inclining state of people which positive/negative thinking related with objects of psychology. Bullying is a some kind of violence which done by the stonger/more powerful people to hurt the weaker people such as physical/psychologically hurt and its can be done in a long time and the victims feel not comfortable in that surrounding area. This study take place in 8 Junior High School which located in west of Jakarta and the subject of studentd is 227 persons (N = 227). Sample has been taken only the student which in the 2nd grade of Junior High School. This conclusion of the result is that students which study in 8 (eight) Junior High School have attitude inclining negative/don't like toward bullying behavior (M = 2,39, SD = 1,27). Almost the students have been become a victim of bullying behavior with their friends who acts bullying behavior (M = 16,38, SD = 5,76).

Keyword : Attitude, Bullying, Students of Junior High School 2nd Grade.