

ABSTRACT

Lisa (705069001)

Parenting Parents in Early Adult Period in Patients Tic; (Naomi Soetikno, M. Pd., Psi; Sandi Kartasasmita, M. Psi); Undergraduate Program in Psychology. Tarumanagara University, (90 pages; R1-R3; Appdx 1-22)

This research is to know the description of parental care pattern in adulthood patients with tic. Parents parenting is a process of interaction that covers everything that is applied behavioral parent to child in a variety of situations for children to achieve progress according to expectations of society in general. Tic criteria in accordance with the criteria in DSM IV-TR. This research was done to 4 adult subject who are between 20-30 years old. The results of this study illustrates that two respondent experienced authoritarian parenting parents, and two respondent had a authoritative parenting.

Keywords: parents parenting, tic, early adult