

Abstract

LEHAVEFREE MINDIASTI (705070148)

Self-discrepancy in Young Adult Women Who do Cohabitation. (DR. Fransisca Iriani R. D., M.Si.; Undergraduate Program in Psychology, Tarumanagara University. (82 pages, R1-R3, Appendix 1-20).

Cohabitation is sometimes to as consensual or informal union status is defined as a lifestyle unmarried couples engaging in sexual relations as well as running live together. Different types of cohabitation based on the motives from they cohabitation. This study focuses on women young adult, caused in women more prone to experience discrepancies suicide that men in the live of cohabitation. Self discrepancy is a discrepancy between ideal own with actual own influenced by the views community. The subjects in this study four participants women were aged 20-40 years and lived together with their partner at least four nights in a week and already least three months, without marital status. The research was conducted approximately three months. The results of these studies show that young adult women who do cohabitation experiences variety self discrepancies in her area self.

Key words: Cohabitation, Self discrepancy, Young Adults.