

ABSTRACT

Oktaviana Esrani Pangaribuan (705070107)

Association

Risky Behavior and Orientation Religiosity Adolescent which Viewed from Parent Orientation Religiosity: study in adolescents who have parents of different religions and religious same (Yohanes Budiarto, S.Pd., M.si) (67 page, P1-P3, L1-L30).

This Study aims to see association of parents religions and risky behavior of adolescent, parents religiosity and risky behavior of adolescent, parents religiosity and orientation religiosity of adolescent, parents religion and risky behavior of adolescent, adolescent religiosity and risky behaviour of adolescent. There are four variables in this study the risk behavior gauge adapted from YRBS (The Youth Risk Behavior Survey), parent orientation religiosity use a measuring adapted of religious commitment (Allport-Ross), adolescent religiosity orientation adapted from Religious Commitment Scale (Prefier and Waelty, 1995), and religious status of parents. The results of this study there was no association between parents religious status and risk behaviors in adolescents, there is no association between parental religiosity and risk behavior in adolescents, there is an association between the status of the parents of religion and religiosity orientation of adolescents, there is an association between parental religiosity orientation and orientation adolescents, there is an association between adolescents orientation religiosity and adolescents risk behaviors.

Key words: risky behaviors, religiosity orientation of parents and adolescents, the status of parental religious.