

ABSTRACT

Desy Ravita Sandy (705090150)

Relationship between the Narcissistic Personality with Self-Serving Bias for Psychometrica Students of Faculty of Psychology at the X University.

(Yohanes Budiarto, S.Pd., M.Si.).

Undergraduate Degree Program in Psychology Tarumanagara University (58 pages, P1-P4, L1-L44)

The purpose of this research is to find out the relationship between narcissistic personality with self-serving bias for psychometrica students of Faculty of Psychology at the X University. This research was conducted on 145 students and S-1 degree students early adulthood with ages ranging from 20-26 years old, the student who already passed psychometrica at the X University and using the purposive sampling method. The result of this research indicate that there is a positive relationship between narcissistic personality with self-serving bias for psychometrica students of Faculty of Psychology at the X University. Pearson Correlation test results using SPSS 18.0 version was found that the students who have more and more narcissistic personality, it was more and more successful too for the students to attributing internal factors as the cause of success (self-serving bias).

Keywords : Narcissistic personality and self-serving bias.