

ABSTRACT

MARTA FEBRIANI

Self Esteem Unmarried Women in Their Middle Adulthood, (Henny E. Wirawan, M.Hum., Psi.); Psychology Program of study S-1, Tarumanagara University. 114 pages, R1-R4, L1-L6.

Generally, people have a negative perception with unmarried women. How the perception influence their life it depends how they look and value their self. The moment when someone judge their self, it's called self esteem. Purpose of this research is to see the tendency of self esteem from unmarried women. The subjects of this research are four unmarried women between forthie until fifthie years old, who still wants married, lift with their parents and didn't have stable income. Pursuant to result of research, although not yet married and pressured by their self and environment, their self esteem still stable.

Key words: self esteem, unmarried women, middle adulthood